THOU ART MY PORTION, O LORD

The Lord fulfilled the Word, and therefore He was hated, and suffered temptations, and thus made the Human one with His Divine.

1. Thou art my portion, O Lord;
 2. I thought on my ways,
 3. The cords of the wicked have encompassed me;
 4. I am a companion of all them that fear Thee,

I have said that I would keep Thy words.
 And turned my feet unto Thy testimonies.
 But I have not gotten Thy law.
 And of them that keep Thy precepts.

I entreated Thy face with my whole heart:
 I made haste and delayed not
 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto Thee
 The earth, O Lord, is full of Thy mercy;

Be merciful unto me according to Thy Word.
 To keep Thy commandments.
 Because of the judgments of Thy justice.
 O teach me Thy statutes.
